

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home

Saturday, October 20, 2012

8:30 am - 1:30 pm

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

8th and Walnut Streets
Allentown, PA 18101

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home

Our fall seminar on affordable housing will present a variety of opportunities for our local congregations to engage in the work of homelessness prevention. The program will include an overview of the circumstances that have contributed to the housing crisis and report some recent initiatives toward ending homelessness in the Lehigh Valley.

Plenary Speakers:

Alan Jennings, Beth Reed, Maritza Torres-Dolich,
Tony Sundermeier, Mayor Ed Pawlowski, and others

Workshops:

- Lisa Pawlowski / Dale Smith -
Ten-year plan to end chronic homelessness / 100,000 homes
- Dave Evans - HADC: Home-Buying Assistance, Construction, Job Training
- Alan Jennings / Justin Collins - Mortgages, Foreclosures & Land Trust
- Tom Walker - Affordable Housing for the Very Poor & Disabled
- Joe Willard - Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania -
State & Federal Public Policy on Affordable Housing

Continental breakfast and lunch are included (suggested donation: $5)
(students or unemployed: Free, or what you can afford)

Sponsored by the Lehigh County Conference of Churches - Justice and Advocacy
Committee and Lehigh Valley partner organizations.

Please pre-register – by Oct. 17 online or by phone:

*See details and program updates at home.ppj.org or contact
the LCCC office at 610-433-6421 or Bob Walden at ja-msc@ppjr.org.

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home*

Saturday, October 20, 2012

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

- 8:30 am Registration; displays, coffee/tea & conversation
- 9:00–10:05 Opening Plenary, Devotions, Introductions, Overview
Plenary speakers: Alan Jennings, Beth Reed, Maritza Torres-Dolich, and others
- 10:15-11:05 Breakout Session 1 - Parallel Workshops
- Tom Walker - Affordable Housing for the Very Poor & Disabled
 - Alan Jennings / Justin Collins - Mortgages, Foreclosures & Land Trust
 - Dave Evans - HADC - Home Construction, Renovation, Job Training, Neighborhood Revitalization, and Home-Buying Assistance
 - Joe Willard - Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania -
State & Federal Public Policy on Affordable Housing
 - Lisa Pawlowski / Dale Smith -
Ten-Year Plan to End Chronic Homelessness / 100,000 Homes
- 11:10-11:35 Plenary 2 - Ed Pawlowski (invited), Tony Sundermeier
- 11:40-12:30 Breakout Session 2 - Parallel Workshops repeated
- 12:30-1:30 pm Lunch and Closing Plenary
Ethnic Food from Inner-City Restaurants

* This is a tentative schedule; please check the web announcement for program and schedule updates, and for program details, directions, and parking information, at home.ppj.org or Email: ja-msc@ppjr.org or call the LCCC office at 610-433-6421.

Lehigh County Conference of Churches: Justice and Advocacy

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home

Saturday, October 20, 2012

8:30 am - 1:30 pm

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

8th and Walnut Streets

Allentown, PA 18101

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home

Our fall seminar on affordable housing will present a variety of opportunities for our local congregations to engage in the work of homelessness prevention. The program will include an overview of the circumstances that have contributed to the housing crisis and report some recent initiatives toward ending homelessness in the Lehigh Valley.

Plenary Speakers:

Alan Jennings, Beth Reed, Maritza Torres-Dolich,
Tony Sundermeier, Mayor Ed Pawlowski, and others

Workshops:

- Lisa Pawlowski / Dale Smith - Ten-year plan to end chronic homelessness / 100,000 homes
- Dave Evans - HADC: Home-Buying Assistance, Construction, Job Training
- Alan Jennings / Justin Collins - Mortgages, Foreclosures & Land Trust
- Tom Walker - Affordable Housing for the Very Poor & Disabled
- Joe Willard - Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania - State & Federal Public Policy on Affordable Housing

Continental breakfast and lunch are included (suggested donation: $5)
(students or unemployed: Free, or what you can afford)

Sponsored by the Lehigh County Conference of Churches - Justice and Advocacy
Committee and Lehigh Valley partner organizations.

Please pre-register – by Oct. 17 online or by phone:

*See details and program updates at home.ppj.org or contact
the LCCC office at 610-433-6421 or Bob Walden at ja-msc@ppjr.org.

Lehigh County Conference of Churches: Justice and Advocacy

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home

Saturday, October 20, 2012

8:30 am - 1:30 pm

St. Paul's Lutheran Church

8th and Walnut Streets

Allentown, PA 18101

A Modest Dream: A Place to Call Home

Our fall seminar on affordable housing will present a variety of opportunities for our local congregations to engage in the work of homelessness prevention. The program will include an overview of the circumstances that have contributed to the housing crisis and report some recent initiatives toward ending homelessness in the Lehigh Valley.

Plenary Speakers:

Alan Jennings, Beth Reed, Maritza Torres-Dolich,
Tony Sundermeier, Mayor Ed Pawlowski, and others

Workshops:

- Lisa Pawlowski / Dale Smith - Ten-year plan to end chronic homelessness / 100,000 homes
- Dave Evans - HADC: Home-Buying Assistance, Construction, Job Training
- Alan Jennings / Justin Collins - Mortgages, Foreclosures & Land Trust
- Tom Walker - Affordable Housing for the Very Poor & Disabled
- Joe Willard - Housing Alliance of Pennsylvania - State & Federal Public Policy on Affordable Housing

Continental breakfast and lunch are included (suggested donation: $5)
(students or unemployed: Free, or what you can afford)

Sponsored by the Lehigh County Conference of Churches - Justice and Advocacy
Committee and Lehigh Valley partner organizations.

Please pre-register – by Oct. 17 online or by phone:

*See details and program updates at home.ppj.org or contact
the LCCC office at 610-433-6421 or Bob Walden at ja-msc@ppjr.org.