Jobs, Justice and Economics

Our program will survey the broad range of support services now available for job training and placement, but also explore what it takes to rebuild a sustainable economy in which workers can find jobs in a healthy work environment and receive fair wages, and how congregations can be engaged in this process. .

Panel Discussion (morning session):

- Community Resources for Unemployed People

Plenary (afternoon session): Thomas J. Hyclak and Kim Bobo

- Getting Back to Work – with living-wage jobs

Workshops*

- Jobs and Workers – current legislation and public policy
- New immigrants & American workers – Adversaries or Allies?
- How economic policy affects workers and employment

Continental breakfast and lunch are included (suggested donation: $10)
(students or unemployed: $5, or what you can afford)

Sponsored by the Lehigh County Conference of Churches - Justice and Advocacy Committee
Pre-registration by Sept. 22nd is appreciated.
